advertising with BL6 Local

The local lifestyle magazine keeping everyone connected...

Established with the goal of fostering connections and emphasising community news, the magazines deliver uplifting, informative and engaging content for both residents and businesses. Our community pages help keep everyone connected, especially those not online and we see 80% of advertisers return to align with our brand for its trustworthiness and reliability.

Our motive is simple; uplift the local community, celebrate its spirit and inspire joy.

Our sister magazine the WN4 was launched in April 2011 and has been tried and tested to ensure that we are at the forefront of what our readers are asking for.

There are now two great platforms to enable you to reach your niche readership.
